

Tone VII
Stichera of the Resurrection
"Lord, I have Cried"

Sticheron I

Canonarch:

Bring my soul out of prison.

Chanters:

That I may confess Thy name.

O come, let us re - joice in the Lord, Who hath brok - en down the might of death, and en-light-ened the hu-man race and let us cry out with the in - cor - por - e - al ones: O our Cre - a - tor and

Sav-iour, glo-ry to Thee.

Sticheron II

Canonarch:

The righteous shall wait patiently for me

Chanters:

Until Thou shalt re-ward me.

For our sake, O Sav - iour, Thou didst en-dure the Cross and entombment and as God Thou didst slay death by death. Where-fore we bow down be-fore Thine a-ris-ing on the third day. O Lord, glo-ry to Thee.

Sticheron III

Canonarch:

Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord.

Chanters:

O Lord, hear my voice.

Be-hold-ing Thy Re-sur-rec - tion, the A - pos - tles mar-velled, chant-ing an - gel - ic praise: This is the glo-ry of the Church. These are the

Sticheron VI

Canonarch:

For Thy name's sake have I patiently waited for Thee, O Lord. My soul hath waited patiently for Thy word.

Chanters:

My soul hath hoped in the Lord.
Des-cend-ing in - to Ha - des, O Christ, as Thou didst will, Thou hast de - stroyed death and by a - ris - ing on the third day as God and Lord, with Thy-self Thou hast raised

Sticheron VII

Canonarch:

From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch,

Chanters:

Let Israel hope in the Lord.

Thou wast laid in a_ tomb, O Christ, as one_ a - sleep, but didst a -
